MARTIN LUTHER’S LEGACY
From the Reformation Until Now

OCTOBER 8 – 19, 2018

Hosted by Rev. Richard Johnson and Rev. Leroy and Mrs. Carolynn Joesten
You won’t want to miss this unique journey of Europe’s rich culture and heritage, and to experience the lasting impact of Martin Luther’s legacy! Our itinerary includes the lively capital cities of Berlin, Prague, and Vienna, as well as the smaller historic towns of Wittenberg, Eisleben, Erfurt, Eisenach, Leipzig, Dresden, and Český Krumlov.

October 2018:

Monday, October 8
Departure from Chicago
The day of departure has arrived! We’ll meet at the Chicago O’Hare International Airport to check in for the transatlantic flight departing in the afternoon. Our adventure is beginning! (D-in flight)

Tuesday, October 9
Arrive Berlin
After changing planes in Europe we’ll touch down in Berlin, Germany’s cosmopolitan capital, where we’ll meet our tour manager and board the waiting motorcoach. An orientation tour will introduce us to the city and includes views of such famous landmarks as the majestic Reichstag, the Brandenburg Gate, Kaiser-Wilhelm Memorial Church, and the Kurfürstendamm—an area filled with cafés, restaurants, theaters, and fashionable shops. A visit to the Kaiser-Wilhelm Memorial Church is planned—a symbol of peace and reconciliation in the city. After checking in at the hotel for a two-night stay, we’ll enjoy a welcome dinner. (B-in flight, D)

Wednesday, October 10
Berlin
Following a good night’s sleep and breakfast, we’re ready to do some exploring! We’ll start the day with a visit to the Dietrich Bonhoeffer House, a memorial to the life and work of the young German pastor who staunchly opposed the Nazi regime. We’ll then drive along Under den Linden to the Nikolaiviertel (Nicholas Quarter), the oldest part of Berlin. After time for lunch, we’ll visit the Berlin Wall Memorial at Bernauerstrasse and take a cruise on the Spree River, followed by some free time and an independent dinner. (B)

Tour Cost
$3,875 per person from Chicago, based on double occupancy

Thursday, October 11
Potsdam, Wittenberg

This morning we’ll travel southwest of Berlin to Potsdam. Here we’ll visit the lovely Sanssouci Palace, the summer residence of Frederick the Great. This elaborate rococo palace was built between 1745 and 1747 and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The grounds, designed by the talented Prussian gardener Peter Joseph Lenné, include Neptune’s Grotto, the Great Fountain, and the Chinese House. We’ll then visit the nearby Schloss Cecilienhof, where the Potsdam Conference was held. Harry Truman, Joseph Stalin, and Winston Churchill met here in 1945 to discuss how to administer the defeated Nazi Germany. We’ll then travel to Lutherstadt-Wittenberg, the “cradle” of the Reformation. We plan to attend an English-language worship service upon arrival in Wittenberg, and relax over dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

Friday, October 12
Wittenberg, Eisleben, Erfurt

Our day begins with a guided tour of the Luther House, formerly a monastery and later Luther’s home, where some of the original rooms are on display. We’ll also visit the house of Philipp Melanchthon—a close friend to Luther and fellow reformer—as well as St. Mary’s City Church, where Luther preached, and the Schlosskirche (Castle Church). It was to the door of this church that Luther affixed his 95 Theses in 1517, and it contains the graves of Luther and Melanchthon. Then we’ll travel to Eisleben, the small mining town where Luther was born and where he died while visiting to help settle a dispute between the Counts of Mansfeld. We’ll visit an interesting museum at the site of Luther’s birth house that has information about his origins, childhood, and youth, and visit the Church of St. Andrew, where Luther delivered the last sermons of his life and his funeral service was held. End the day in Erfurt, the “Town of Flowers.” (B, D)

Saturday, October 13
Eisenach, Erfurt

An excursion to Eisenach awaits us this morning, where we’ll visit the impressive Wartburg Castle, which is perched on a rocky spur above town. It was here that Luther worked on his translation of the New Testament from the original Greek text to German. We’ll see the Knight’s Hall, the dining room, the Wartburg Museum, and Luther’s room. In town, we’ll visit St. George’s Church, where Bach was baptized and Luther preached in 1521, even though he was officially banned from the Holy Roman Empire at the time, as well as the Bach House Museum. After time for lunch, we’ll return to Erfurt and visit the Augustinian Monastery, where Luther once lived and worked. We’ll also visit the massive Erfurt Cathedral and see the Krämerbrücke (Merchants’ Bridge), a unique bridge lined with quaint shops. The evening will be free to choose from one of Erfurt’s restaurants for an independent dinner. (B)
Sunday, October 14
Leipzig
This morning we’ll head to Leipzig, a city steeped in musical tradition. It was here that Johann Sebastian Bach spent his most productive years, Richard Wagner was born, and Friedrich von Schiller composed his “Ode to Joy” in a house just outside town. We plan to attend a worship service upon arrival in Leipzig, followed by time for lunch. An afternoon walking tour includes a visit St. Thomas Church, where Bach was cantor for 27 years and Luther’s sermon here, on Pentecost in 1539, effectively introduced the Reformation to this part of Germany. We’ll also see St. Nicholas Church, which was the rendezvous point for the “Peaceful Revolution” in 1989. (B, D)

Monday, October 15
Dresden, Terezín, Prague
Our travels take us to Dresden today, located in the heart of Saxony on the banks of the Elbe River. The city was almost completely destroyed during heavy air raids in World War II, just a few months before the end of the war, but was amazingly restored to its former splendor. We’ll see evidence of this restoration by visiting the Frauenkirche, and have time for an independent lunch. Then we’ll travel across the German-Czech border to Terezín, where we’ll visit the Theresienstadt Concentration Camp. This camp served as a detention center for thousands of Jews, among them Europe’s most gifted artists, musicians, composers, and writers. Despite inhumane living conditions, they sustained an active cultural community. After this sobering visit, our day concludes in Prague, the Czech capital. We’ll make a stop to see the famed Hradcany Panorama, which is formed by Prague Castle and St. Vitus Cathedral; then check in at the hotel for a two-night stay and dinner. (B, D)

Tuesday, October 16
Prague
We’ll have a full day in Prague, starting with a visit to Wenceslas Square, site of the “Velvet Revolution” that led to the collapse of the communist regime in 1989. Then we’ll tour the famous Prague Castle and St. Vitus Cathedral. We’ll also walk through Staré Mesto (the Old Town) to see the beautiful Týn Church, the Old Town Hall with its 15th-century Astronomical Clock, Kinský Palace, and the Jan Hus Monument. Prague had a thriving Jewish community before World War II. We’ll see Josefov, the ancient Jewish Quarter. Our time here includes Pinkas Synagogue, which now serves as a memorial to all the Jewish Czech citizens who didn’t return from Nazi concentration camps, and the legendary Jewish Cemetery, where thousands of graves are piled on top of one another. The rest of the afternoon and evening are free to explore Prague and have an independent dinner. (B)
Wednesday, October 17

Český Krumlov, Vienna

This morning we’ll bid farewell to Prague and travel to the charming medieval Czech town of Český Krumlov, in southern Bohemia. It was built around the 13th century and is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We’ll visit the castle and have time for lunch, and then travel across the Austrian border. Our destination is the capital city of Vienna, known for its musical tradition, Lipizzaner stallions, wonderful pastries, and grand architecture. Upon arrival, we’ll check in at the hotel and relax over dinner. (B, D)

Thursday, October 18

Vienna

We’ll enjoy a full day in Vienna, starting with a guided tour of the city’s highlights including views of some of its oldest buildings along the Ringstrasse—among them Hofburg Palace, the Parliament building, the New Town Hall, and the Post Office Savings Bank. We also plan to tour the impressive State Opera House and visit St. Stephen’s Cathedral in the center of the Ring. An excursion will be offered to Schönbrunn Palace this afternoon, which was the summer residence of the Hapsburg royal family, or we’ll have the afternoon free to do as we please in Vienna—visit a museum, shop for souvenirs, or experience Viennese café culture. We’ll reconvene for a festive farewell dinner at a restaurant this evening. (B, D)

Friday, October 19

Return to Chicago

Early this morning, we’ll bid Auf Wiedersehen as we transfer to the Vienna airport to check in for our flights back to Chicago. Our Martin Luther’s Legacy tour has certainly been enlightening, enjoyable, and richly rewarding! (B, L-in flight)
The cost of your tour includes:

Air transportation from Chicago to Berlin and from Vienna returning to Chicago with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/ nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier’s code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration’s (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. For TSA's policy and more information, visit http://www.tsa.gov and search on Secure Flight. Witte Travel & Tours (Witte) takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Frequent flyer points are not guaranteed in connection with group airfares. Some airlines may limit group airfare credits to 25% to 50% of the frequent flyer points that apply to individuals while others do not offer any credits for group airfares.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years’ imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many European cities, sightseeing is often done on foot or via public transportation.

Accommodations based on two persons sharing a room with private facilities. Most hotels we use range from moderate first-class to standard first-class. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class properties are selected. The supplement for single accommodations is $490. If you register alone but want a roommate, we will do our best to assign one. If a single room must be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Meals. Breakfast daily and seven dinners. Dinners do not include beverages.

A multi-lingual tour manager to accompany the group from arrival in Berlin until departure from Vienna. The tour manager may be assisted by local guides as needed.

Sightseeing and admission fees in accordance with the itinerary.

The tour cost does not include passports, airline luggage fees if charged, portage of luggage at airport and hotels that do not have porters, optional travel protection plan including luggage and trip cancellation coverage, optional excursions, independent meals, and any other items not mentioned as included.

Tipping and taxes are included for all services, except the tip for the tour manager and motorcoach driver. We suggest a minimum tip of €4.00 per person/ per day, to be divided between the tour manager and the motorcoach driver.

Luggage allowance. You may take one suitcase with a maximum size of 62 linear inches (height plus width plus depth) and weight of 50 lbs. You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines’ requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or in an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet. Portage of luggage is provided at hotels to the greatest extent possible. Portage is not provided at airports and at hotels that do not have porters. Let your tour personnel know if you need assistance with your luggage.

Insecticide Disclosure. Some countries require that aircraft be treated with insecticides prior to flight or while occupied. For a list of the countries with insecticide requirements, go to http://airconsumer.dot.gov/spray.htm.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan. For your convenience, Witte Travel offers a travel protection plan designed by Travelex Insurance Services. This travel protection can be purchased at any time prior to making the final payment for your tour. The pre-existing medical conditions exclusion will be waived if you purchase the protection plan within 15 days of the initial trip deposit, provided you are medically fit to travel at the time of purchase and full trip cost is insured. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. It may be necessary to increase the trip cost insured on the travel protection plan if you purchase additional services and/or upgrade any arrangements. This could increase the plan cost of the travel protection plan. The plan cost for this travel protection plan is non-refundable after a 15-day review period.

Documentation: U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport. If you already have a passport, check its expiration date now since the countries visited on this tour require passports to be valid for at least six months beyond the traveler’s intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport or need a new one, apply as soon as possible. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.
Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. Although this is not a requirement, it will save time if questions arise while clearing customs.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 28 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or smaller group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. It is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature below indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.
